

Indy1800 Indoor Bullseye League Bylaws

Name

The name of the league shall be Indy1800 Indoor Bullseye League

Membership

Application for membership shall be made to the Secretary-Treasurer and shall include such information and fee as the Council (or Executive Committee) shall require. The Secretary-Treasurer shall lay such applications before the Council at its next regular or special meeting for acceptance or rejection by ballot. Negative ballots shall be required to reject an application.

Management

The Management of the league shall be vested in the Executive Committee.

An Executive Officer who shall act as Chairman of the League; a Secretary-Treasurer and a Public Relations Officer who acting together, shall constitute the Executive Committee.

It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to formulate the league schedule of competitions, entry fees, prize awards, etc.; to appoint such Range Officers, Official Scores and other officials as may be required to conduct properly the league competitions.

The Executive Officer may appoint such special committees as from time to time appear necessary to further the activities of the league.

The Executive Officer will appoint a League Jury whose decision on scoring shall be final.

The Secretary must submit scores from the league to NRA, on official score reporting cards within 30 days of the conclusion of the league (NRA. Rule 19.13)

Meetings

The regular meeting of the Executive Committee and for the transaction of other business shall be held as required during each year. Special meetings may be called at any time by the Executive Officer or on the written request of any members stating the cause for such meeting.

Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held at any time on the call of the Executive Officer or on the joint call of the Secretary-Treasurer and the Public Relations Officer.

Any two members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum of the committee.

Shooting Rules

All league competitions shall be governed by the general rules and regulations of the National Rifle Association that were in effect at the time the league schedule was approved by the council for the current season. NRA League regulations will also apply.

Indy1800 Indoor Bullseye League Bylaws

Caliber Restrictions

While shooting on a point with the turning target systems, shooters are restricted to use target ammunition only. For example, these include 22LR standard velocity, 32/38 wadcutter/semi wadcutter, 45 semi wadcutter or similar low velocity loads. If you are uncertain that the round you plan to shoot meets these restrictions, gain approval from the match director before shooting. If you plan to shoot high velocity or round nose ball ammunition, please use a standard non-turning target backer.

Discipline

Any member may be suspended or expelled from the league by action of the Executive Committee after presentation of written charges and proper hearing. Such charges must be delivered in person, or by first class registered mail, to the Secretary-Treasurer. Charges may be preferred by any league official or by an officer of any League organization, they shall be in duplicate, and the Secretary-Treasurer shall deliver the duplicate to the accused individual by personal delivery or registered mail. The charges shall be heard at a special meeting of the Executive Committee held not less than 10 days after the duplicate copy of the charges has been delivered or mailed to the accused. The accused may answer the charges in writing or in the presence of any 2 officers. The vote shall be on a motion to suspend or a motion to expel and a two-thirds vote of the Delegates present shall be required for suspension or expulsion.

In any case when charges have been referred, it shall be the duty of the Secretary —Treasurer to render a full report to the National Rifle Association as to the charges, the answers, and the disposition of the case and to cooperate with the National Rifle Association in such other manner as may be required in order to permit disciplinary action by the national organization. Any individual who stands disbarred from competition by the National Rifle Association shall automatically stand disbarred from competition in this league.

All Federal, State, and local laws will be obeyed.